

Hai

at Port Douglas

海

Hai meaning 'sea' in Chinese, is what in essence, Port Douglas is all about - Miles of beautiful beach, a quiet village atmosphere with its world class restaurants and the most spectacular scenery - from the Great Barrier Reef to the Rainforest and beyond!

These beautifully designed six duplex-style townhouses are internally decidedly Asian in feel whilst externally capturing the contemporary nature of today's architecture.

and with The Links golf course and 'IGA' shopping centre close by, these properties have all been designed with the tropical climate in mind.

The crisp lines are softened by the use of natural timbers and lush tropical landscaping, with each unit having its own private access to the stunning lagoon style pool and bbq area.

Centrally located just a short walk to the beach, less than five minutes drive from the village
